As the Director of Strategic Services at Bronner, Ms. Piper is a senior-level advisor to government entities and oversees the continual creation of innovative and customizable client- and market-driven services and products.

A former social worker, advisor, and thought leader in governmental and not-for-profit organizations, Ms. Piper has applied expertise in direct service, operations, fiscal policy, and program creation, administration, and evaluation, with specific industry focus on health and human services, education, public housing, and workforce development.

Prior to joining Bronner, Ms. Piper created and directed programs for Chicago Career Tech, a pioneering technology workforce development initiative, where she managed a diverse network of participants, vendors, and stakeholders. Ms. Piper also served as the Deputy Budget Director for the Massachusetts Department of Early Education and Care and the Director of Public Affairs and Field Services for the Massachusetts Office for Victim Assistance. She also held post as the Health and Human Services Fiscal Policy Advisor under the Romney and Patrick Administrations in Massachusetts.

Ms. Piper holds a MSW/MSc with honors in Evidence-Based Social Intervention from the University of Oxford, UK and a Bachelor of Arts magna cum laude from Brown University in Providence, RI. She also serves on the Associate Boards of Voices for Illinois Children and Children's Home + Aid, and is an active volunteer with Best Buddies International and the Anti-Cruelty Society.
